An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to an applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The following changes have been made in a subject of the application to place the claims in a condition for allowance:

Claim

In claim 6:

- line 2, changed "wherein" to -- , -- .
- line 8, inserted --the-- before "trace".

The above change was made to place the application in better condition for allowance.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance:

Claims 1-5 are allowed because none of the prior art references of record teaches an ink melt heater for heating a solid ink stick for melting the ink stick to a liquid, the heater comprising a plurality of heater traces being disposed to form at least a first and a second thermal heater zones, the first thermal heater zone having a first trace configuration for regulating an ink melt rate, and the second thermal heater zone having a second trace configuration for reducing liquid phase ink viscosity in the combination as claimed.

Claims 6-11 are allowed because none of the prior art references of record teaches an ink melt heater for heating a solid ink stick for melting the ink stick to a liquid, the heater comprising a trace assembly having a plurality of power zones having different wattage densities respectively and, adhered thereto, the heater having a low thermal mass for enhanced and rapid heat transfer from the trace assembly through a transfer plate to the ink stick in the combination as claimed.

Citation of Pertinent Prior Art

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The prior art references (US Pat. 5,635,964; US Pat. 6,086,194; US Pat. 6,530,655; US Pat. 6,905,201) cited in the PTO 892 form show a heating device that deemed to be relevant to the present invention. These references should be reviewed.
